HOLY EUCHARIST RITE II

ST. LUKE'S ON THE LAKE EPISCOPAL CHURCH | 5600 RANCH ROAD 620 NORTH | AUSTIN, TX 78732

*Rejoice and sing now,
all the round earth,
bright with a glorious splendor,
for darkness has been vanquished by our eternal King*

(from the Exultet, Book of Common Prayer, p.286)

Dear Friends,

Alleluia! Alleluia! Welcome and thank you for joining us for worship on this happy Easter morning! Whoever you are, and wherever you are on your spiritual journey, we are delighted you are here.

On this day, we celebrate the triumph of Love over all despair and darkness, even death. The resurrection of Jesus reminds us that nothing can separate us from the love of God and that we are irrevocably God's beloved, rescued, and forever restored by his grace. Nothing we can do and nothing that has been done to us can change this. Even more, God's redeeming love extends for the life of whole world- the creation, all creatures, and all peoples of the earth.

As we bear witness to division, war, greed, and despair, the promise of Easter brings hope and courage to our hurting world. As we wrestle with sorrow and struggle in our own lives, the love of Jesus transforms us, leading us from death into life. We at St. Luke's recognize that hope, courage, and transforming love don't happen in a vacuum - but in a community of belonging and purpose. We need each other to heal, to forgive, to grow, and to shine. If you are looking for a spiritual home, we invite you to join us as, together, we strive to know God, love God and love and serve one another.

If you have questions about our church community or would just like to talk, please call, send us an email, or drop a connection card in the offering plate. We look forward to hearing from you.

On this day, and throughout the season of Easter, may you be surprised by joy and receive the abundant blessings of new and resurrected life.

God's Peace,

THE LESSONS

The First Reading

Lector A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Peter began to speak to Cornelius and the other Gentiles: "I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name." (Acts 10:34-43)

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Lector Please join me in reading today's Psalm responsively by whole verse.

The Lector leads the Psalm; the People respond as indicated by bold italics.

<sup>1</sup>Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; *
his mercy endures for ever.

<sup>2</sup>Let Israel now proclaim, ****
"His mercy endures for ever."

<sup>14</sup>The LORD is my strength and my song, *
and he has become my salvation.

<sup>15</sup>There is a sound of exultation and victory * in the tents of the righteous:

- <sup>16</sup>"The right hand of the LORD has triumphed! *
the right hand of the LORD is exalted! the right hand of the LORD has triumphed!"
- <sup>17</sup>*I shall not die, but live, **
and declare the works of the LORD.
- <sup>18</sup>The LORD has punished me sorely, *
but he did not hand me over to death.
- <sup>19</sup>*Open for me the gates of righteousness; **
I will enter them; I will offer thanks to the LORD.
- <sup>20</sup>"This is the gate of the LORD; *
he who is righteous may enter."
- <sup>21</sup>*I will give thanks to you, for you answered me **
and have become my salvation.
- <sup>22</sup>The same stone which the builders rejected * has become the chief cornerstone.
- <sup>23</sup>*This is the LORD's doing, **
and it is marvelous in our eyes.
- <sup>24</sup>On this day the LORD has acted; *
we will rejoice and be glad in it. (Psalm 118:1-2, 14-24)

Please stand as you are able. All children are invited forward during the last verse of the sequence hymn to gather around the gospel book for the proclamation of the good news. Parents are welcome to accompany their children forward.

The Gospel

Gospeller      The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People      Glory to you, Lord Christ.

On the first day of the week, at early dawn, the women who had come with Jesus from Galilee came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in, they did not find the body. While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again." Then they remembered his words, and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened. (Luke 24:1-12)

Gospeller      The Gospel of the Lord.

People      Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Following the call and response below, all children are invited to follow the cross to the Parish Hall for Kid's Church (children will return to the sanctuary following the Lord's Prayer for Communion) or to return to the pew to sit their family.

Gospeller      This is God's Story

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

THE SERMON

A period of silence follows the sermon.

The Reverend Kathy Rock Pfister, Rector

Please stand as you are able.

THE NICENE CREED

BCP 355

Celebrant      Please join me in affirming our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

*We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.*

*We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.*

Facing the Holy Table the Celebrant continues

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Celebrant and People sing together

SANCTUS (A Community Mass, Richard Proulx)

HYMNAL S-125

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of power and might, Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The People stand or kneel as able.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

The Celebrant and People say together

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

BCP 364

Celebrant And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
The Celebrant and People say together

*Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.*
